All Nutrition & Food Science Graduate Students beginning their second year of study and beyond this Fall 2019 are required to present their research.

Oral & Poster Presentations Competition

Three awards will be granted by each field (Nutrition or Food Science) and category* (Oral or Poster competition):

- 1st: $500
- 2nd: $250
- 3rd: $100

*12 awards total

To participate, please complete an abstract submission using the Google Docs form here or scan the QR code by Wednesday September 25 by 5:00 pm

NFSC Symposium Schedule

Thursday Oct 3, 2019

- Mix & Mingle: 3:15 PM
- Keynote Seminar: 3:30 PM - 4:30 PM
- Roundtable: 4:30 PM

Friday Oct 4, 2019

Morning sessions: 9:00 AM - 11:30 AM
- Nutrition posters (Kleberg Atrium)
- Food Science orals (Cater-Mattil R 124)

Seminar Lunch: 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm
Cater-Mattil R 124
*Graduate students only

Afternoon sessions: 2:30 PM - 5:00 PM
- Food Science posters (Kleberg Atrium)
- Nutrition orals (Cater-Mattil R 124)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

“Breaking the Obesity-Cancer Link: New Targets and Strategies”.

Stephen D. Hursting, PhD

Professor
Department of Nutrition
University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

October 3rd, 3:30 PM - 4:30 PM
MSC 2406A

Organized by the Nutritional Science Graduate Association (NSGA) and the Department of Nutrition & Food Science

Email questions to tamuNSGA@gmail.com